

Trauma Informed Attachment Aware Schools (TIAAS) Training for New Starters

Overview:

Birmingham Educational Psychology Service is offering a training programme of 1.5 days, designed for new staff joiners in settings which have already completed their whole school TIAAS training. The training will support staff to apply trauma and attachment aware strategies in school, which are based upon current and up-to-date theory and research. We also train staff to use Emotion Coaching; an evidence-based universal approach towards responding to emotions and developing self-regulation skills.

Key Training Content:

This course is only suitable for new staff members in schools who are already on our TIAAS programme, and have therefore already received the whole school training package. This training will be delivered in person at Swanshurst School by Educational Psychologists. This course has two parts; part 1 will be delivered on 06/11/2024 from 9.30-3.30pm and part 2 on 27/11/2024 from 1-3.30pm.

Cost of the TIAAS training for New Starters: £421

(Booking for 2 or more people attending from the same setting: £325 per delegate)

To book, please follow the link:

Trauma Informed Attachment Aware Schools \(TIAAS\) Training for New Starters | Birmingham Education Support Services